A Message from Ruth

Hello Chapter Members, and Friends of WNBA/LA,

By mistake, I left out a few items of news about our chapter members in the March newsletter. So here they are...plus a few reminders and volunteer opportunities.
Sincerely,

Ruth Light

Memorial Award Dinner for Excellence in Children's Literature.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES We need help publicizing the Judy Lopez Award Dinner---contact Ruth Light at ruthlight3@gmail.com
We're also looking for clerical help and help with chapter membership duties.

*ALSO---we're looking for AUTHOR CONTACTS for the Judy Lopez Award Dinner. Author Contacts provide a liaison between a winning author and the selection committee. This is an interesting and fun way to contribute to the Judy Lopez Award process! Contact Ruth Light (ruthlight3@gmail.com) if you are interested in any of the above...and thank you!

WNBA-LA member Barbara Meltzer was featured in the Wall Street Journal's "Work & Family" column written by Sue Shellenbarger. <http://tiny.cc/hgr6b>. The column focused on the challenges of being a family caregiver, in addition to providing several solutions. Barbara, who serves as a Commissioner on the Los Angeles County Commission for Older Adults, was a caregiver to her mother Sara and has written about the subject for several publications. Barbara can be reached at barbara@meltzerpr.com. Her web site is www.meltzerpr.com.
